WHITESBORO CENTRAL HIGH SCHOOL

FOREWORD

We, the Class of '52, are soon to leave behind the familiar halls and classrooms of Whitesboro Central. A few of us may someday return; however the majority of us will catch only occasional glimpses of our beloved school. We have been carefully guided through the four years of high school by our teachers and parents. Now we must use this knowledge to build a place for ourselves in the world. Let us always remember our old Alma Mater and by our actions keep her name alive.

BEYOND THE HORIZON

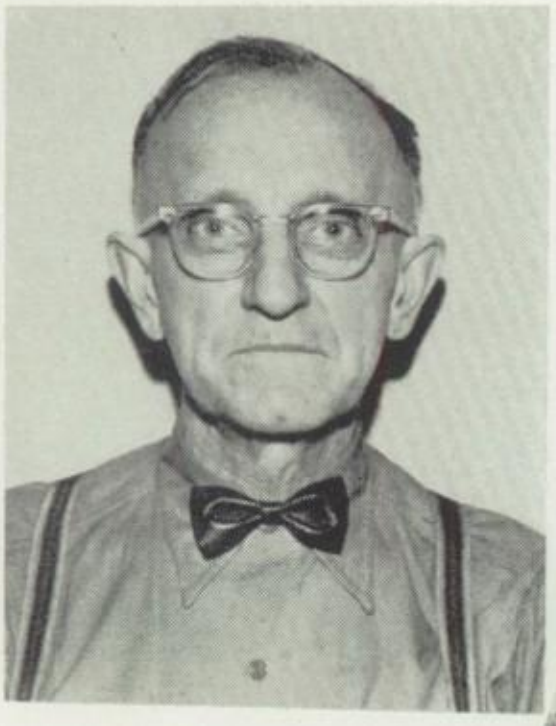
What is beyond the horizon of the future for us, the Senior Class of 1952? Into what kind of world are we about to enter?

It is obviously not a world at peace. Whether it is called simply a "police action" or war, all of us are affected. Many of our class will serve in the Armed Forces. Others of us will remain at home to fight the evils of those who wish to destroy America. Regardless of which we do, Seniors, remember that we have a grave responsibility to do our share in the fight for our priceless heritage — democracy.

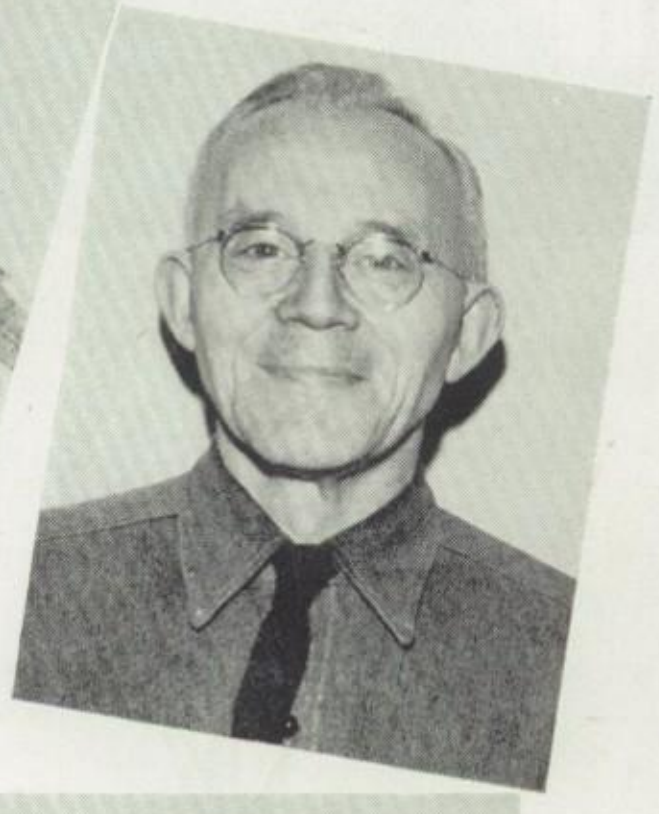
The peace, security, and happiness of future generations depend upon how we meet our responsibilities and obligations. We entered Whitesboro to learn. Now it is the time for us to leave and go forth to serve. Serve — to make those years beyond the horizon peaceful for our fellow men.

—THE EDITOR

DEDICATION



GEORGE R. ZIMMER
Head Custodian



As Seniors, we look upon our school with a pride that grows as each year passes. So much of this pride stems from the outward signs of a beautiful school, that the Class of '52 feels it only proper to dedicate its own priceless yearbook to the custodial staff. For many years they have labored to keep our school one of the most picturesque in Central New York State. To the unsung heroes of W. C. S. go our warmest thanks and appreciation.

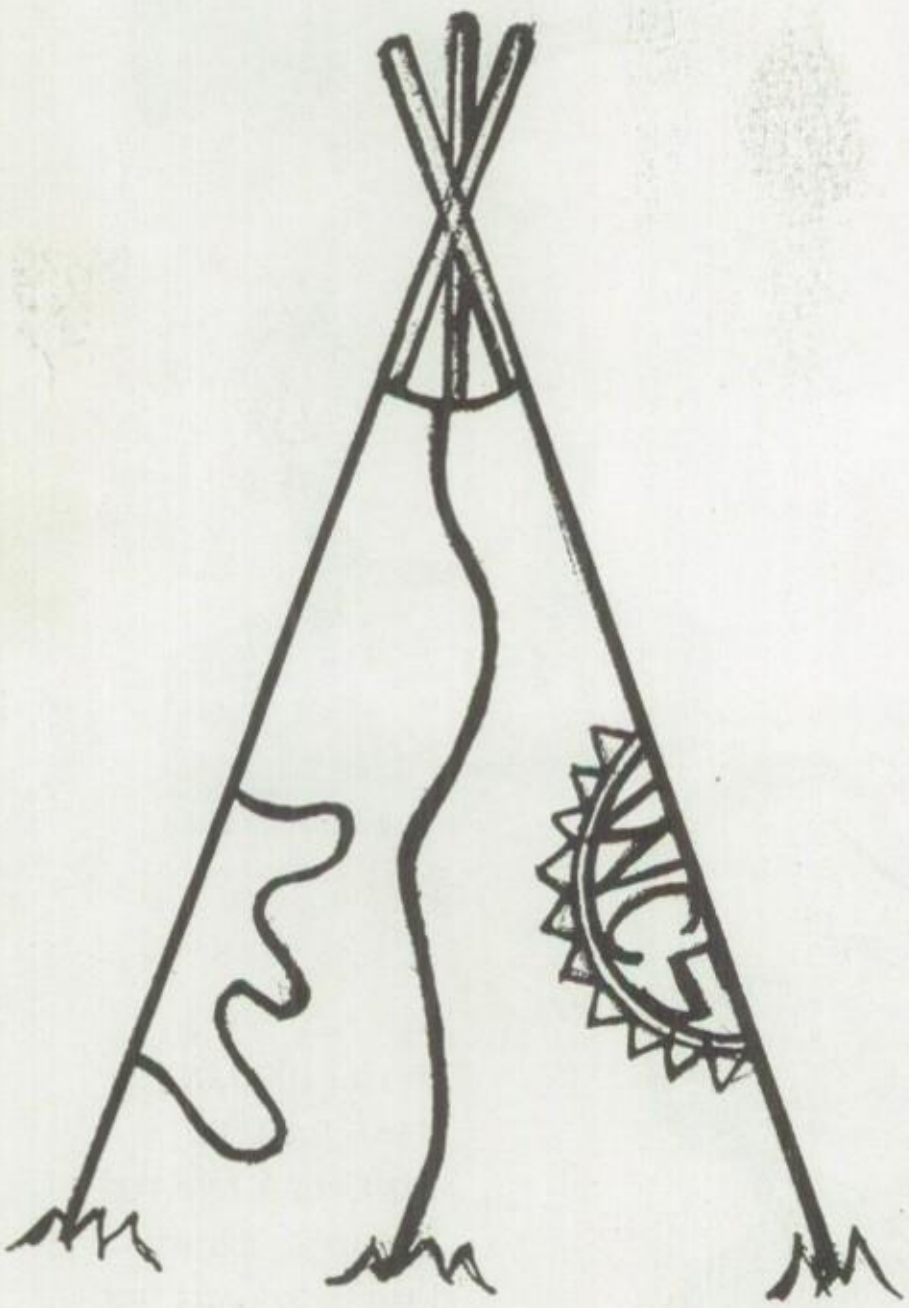
ALMA MATER

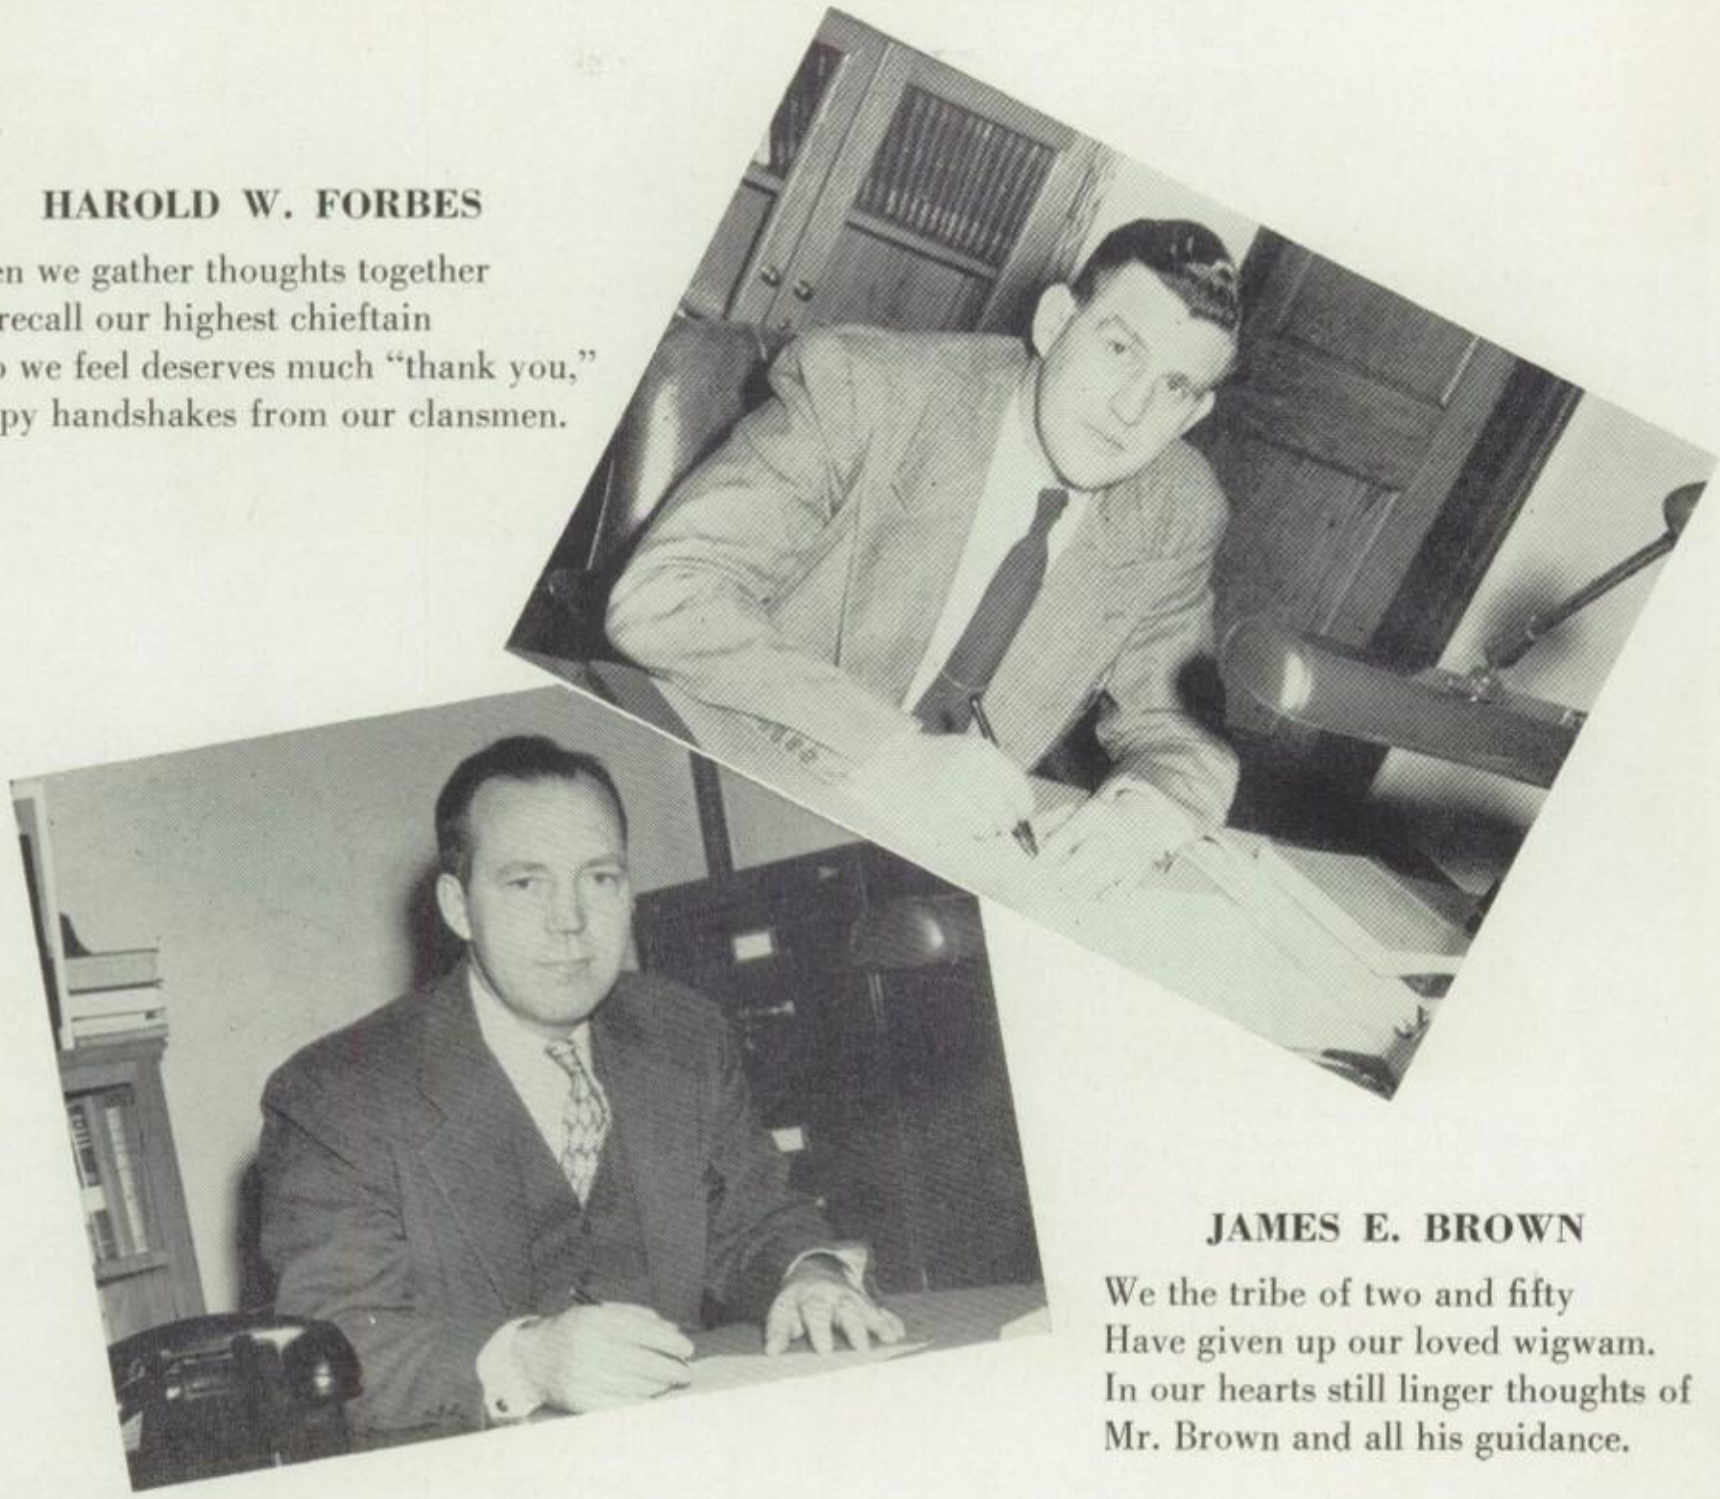


Hail to thee! O Sons of Whitesboro,
We have a trust to keep;
The love of Whitesboro High School
And her high ideals to seek;
Loyalty is for the blue,
And the white means honor bright;
So we'll all stand true forever
To the Royal Blue and White.

Through the four long years of high school,
'Midst the scenes we loved so well;
We have struggled on and upward
Till we've reached the goal ideal;
Whitesboro High, we'll ne'er forget you;
You will always loom so bright,
And we'll all stand true forever
To the Royal Blue and White.

When we're launched on life's great journey,
And we come to toil and care;
We will think of dear old Whitesboro
And the morals we've learned there;
We'll uphold her fine ideals,
And we'll represent the right;
Be right, be square, be true, be fair
To the Royal Blue and White.

ADMINISTRATION



HAROLD W. FORBES

When we gather thoughts together
We recall our highest chieftain
Who we feel deserves much "thank you,"
Happy handshakes from our clansmen.

JAMES E. BROWN

We the tribe of two and fifty
Have given up our loved wigwam.
In our hearts still linger thoughts of
Mr. Brown and all his guidance.

TRIBAL history CLASS OF '52

It has been my duty to dig up ancient tribal history to be reviewed by you, but there is so much to be told and so little space that I shall jot down only the hight lights in the Tribal History of '52.

Many moons ago we were lowly "greenhorns," mere Freshmen, who as young papooses were much delighted to have entered senior high. We hoped only to do well and accomplish much. To help us succeed, we elected Andy Wind as chief with Pat Maxwell as vice chief. Squaw Jackie Robinson took over the scribe's spot and Steve Sychtysz was treasurer. Under their leadership our class was tops.

Hiawathas struggled very hard in Freshman year, but were well rewarded as they moved one notch higher on the totem pole and entered their Sophomore year. So far we were the finest tribe in the Whitesboro nation and to prove it we threw heap big dance, the Soph Hop, with baseball as our theme. Our hop was the biggest dance of the school year.

To help keep us on an even keel during the year, we elected as our chief warrior, Dick Malsan, with braves Bill Stewart and Pete Kowal assisting. Tribe scribe was squaw Ann Howard.

Then came our Junior year. The Tribe of '52 was fast becoming a legend in the annals of Whitesboro, but there was heap much work to do. Again, Warrior Malsan led the tribe with the assistance of Medicine Man Wheeler. Squaw Jackie Robinson was scribe and we chose Pete Kowal wampum holder. Tribe members were far sighted for they realized the need for wampum if Tribe was to have a Junior Prom or the Yearbook next year. As a result, Juniors could always be found selling something.

Along with all the hustle before the prom, our rings arrived. They were of the "Academy Award" design to show everyone that we were the star class of W.C.S. You could always tell a Junior by the sparkle he shoved in front of your face.

We held a big pow-wow and chose Jim Weaver and Sonya Smolinsky to head our prom committee. We were determined to have the best prom ever and as a result of a heap of hard work, we did. All through the Easter vacation and many a long night after school, the art committee under the guidance of Jack Bathrick slaved to create the beautiful Hawaiian scenes. Pete Kowal and Rita Kupiec were crowned King and Queen of our "Hawaiian Magic." Although the prom has long been over, we'll never, never forget it.

Finally the Tribe of '52 was at the top of the totem pole. Yes, at long last, we were Seniors! Four years seemed like a long time. Yet as we look back now, it has been only too short. This was our year, so without any more ado we elected Sitting Bull Hovey as our chief of the tribe. Squaws Ann Howard, Margaret Roberts and Dot Monroe filled in the other tribal council positions.

Many tribal members tried out for the Senior play. Gene Oderkirk and Carol O'Connor captured the lead roles in "Glamour Boy." Miss Dey, our director, narrowly averted a nervous breakdown, but in spite of all, the play was a huge success and made heaps of wampum to help support our Yearbook.

Tribe held another pow-wow and chose squaw Ann Howard as Editor-in-Chief of the Yearbook. Squaw Marge Gardner was our Art Editor and Warrior Dick Malsan was our Business Editor. Money was still the deciding factor, so tribal members could be seen selling Christmas cards, magazines and Yearbook subscriptions. The tribe also sponsored two Senior dances and many school assemblies. At last, after much hard work and many sleepless nights, enough wampum was collected and our "Che-ga-quat-ka" went to press.

The big night arrived, and the Tribe of '52 graduated. This was followed by our last big get-together to come for many moons, our Senior Ball.

So ends the history of the Tribe of '52. All of us will go our many different ways and do many different things, but we shall always share one common knowledge of the fun and enjoyment we had together as the Class of '52.

Respectfully submitted,

CLASS WILL

We, the Senior Tribe of Whitesboro Central School, Whitesboro, New York, being of sound mind and memory, do therefore make, ordain, publish, and declare this to be our last will and testament in high school. The Tribe Will follows:

JOAN ADSIT, her chemistry book to JOHN THOMAS, because it might not fight him like it did her. PATRICK ALFANO, a new pair of glasses to BOB GIFFORD, because he broke his and can't see without them. FRANCIS ANGIER, all his A's in his subjects to FRED BRAGG and JACK MILLER, because they never get any either. FRANCES BABIARZ, her knowledge of the Polish language to MR. ROSEBUSH, because it may come in handy in the future. DUDLEY BAILEY, his front seat in Miss Berryman's English class to BOBBY GIFFORD, because without his glasses he will need it. CHESTER BANEK, a seat in English class to STAN ZURAKOWSKI, so he will learn to talk sense and not say "huh". JOHN BARRETT, his adventures in chemistry lab to TOM FARRELL, so he can blow up the things Jack missed. JOHN BATHRICK, the school camera to any poor individual who will put up with it. It is not in the best of working order. MARY BELLAMY, her notorious criminal record to YOLANDA GUARNO, because she has a good start and won't have to work so hard to get it. GEORGE BOWER, all his books to VIVIAN VAN ETTEN. She may get more out of them. JOANNE BRANCHE, admiration of Ted Williams to most boys at W.C.S., because they don't seem to appreciate him. GAIL BRENNAN, all his jokes to Mr. Farrell's retailing class, because he can't get anyone to laugh at his.

MARY LOU COLEMAN, her pen to JAMES COLEMAN. It is all worn out and won't write anymore. DELORES COWBURN, her seat in A Cappella choir to her sister SUSAN, because she wants it very much. NANCY CURTIS, Miss Berryman's gum dish to the seniors of '53. ALDEN DEMING, his seat and desk in Mr. Morrison's social studies class to LARRY COX, because Larry likes to sit in the back of the room. DONNA DIEHL, all "those notes" to FLOYD'S MOTHER, because they all came out in the wash anyway. CHARLES DONOHUE, his shot gun to DUANE ULRICH, because he can't hit anything with his own gun. PETER DURHAM, his last cigar to his brother CHRIS, so that he may run cross country better. JANE EDWARDS, her retailing book to RITA JONES, because she can make better use of it than Jane can. JEAN EDWARDS, home room 30 to MAREN ELLIS, because it is a good one. JOAN EVANS, her seat on Bus 12 to DEDE HAWKEN, because she never seems to get one. JOYCE EVANS, her locker to ANN BALCUM, because it never works anyway.

RICHARD FARMER, a new Buick convertible to JOHN BARRY. The old Buick needs a rest. ANN FARRELL, her sousaphone to her brother TOM, because he has a hard time playing his clarinet. BEVERLY FREEMAN, her chemistry book to her brother BOB, because he will appreciate it more than Bev does. RICHARD FUNKE, his seat in detention to LARRY COX, because Dick thinks he can make good use of it. MARJORIE GARDNER, her position on the Girls' Varsity team to LILLIAN HAYDUK, because she is already on it. CAROL GATES, some manners to some of the Whitesboro boys, because they could use some. DONNA GEARY, "Louie", her locker to her sister JEANNE. Donna could never get it opened. MARYLN GILBERT, a life-time supply of vitamin pills to MISS JACKSON, because she'll be bankrupt buying them. ROBERT GOLIK, his books back to his brother, because they were a mess.

CAROL HASTINGS, a story book to MARCIA STOLARCZYK, because she's always making believe. RONALD HOVEY, his chemistry book to GEORGE HERTHUM, because Ronnie never cracked it anyway. ANN HOWARD, all the trials and tribulations of being Editor to next year's Editor of the Yearbook. ROGER HOWE, his chemistry seat to TOM FARRELL, so he will be in a good position to stare out the window. SHIRLEY HUGHES, a round trip ticket to Bermuda and all the cold you-know-whats to MISS JACKSON. VIRGINIA HUMISTON, a car to JOAN ROBERTS, so she won't have to skip like they did this year. JOHN HUMMEL, his beverage capacity to DENNIS DAVIS, because his isn't very good. ELLEN JEWELL, her talking in classes to her sister CLAIRE, because she never does any. JAMES JOHNSTON, his good car to DICK BATHRICK, because he is always looking for a ride. KENNETH JONES, his seat in chemistry class to any unlucky person who likes a convenient seat for snoozing. PHYLLIS JONES, Buster Ogden to her sister RITA, since he comes up to see her anyhow. TEDD JONES, his "B" average to his brother, because he'll need it.

DOROTHY KASPEREK, a loudspeaker to anyone who will be sitting in the back row in Mr. Thompson's bookkeeping class, because he never seems to hear. GERTRUDE KIPER, all the good times she has had in Concert Band to SHIRLEY BETHLEHEM. Shirley deserves them. ROBERT KIPER, his fishing tip-ups to DEAN MALLORY. He hasn't any of his own. MATHEW KLOCZKOWSKI, some good golf scores to MR. ROSEBUSH. He certainly needs them. JAMES KLUMBACH, his most prized possession "women" to brother BOB, "HERBIE" and DOUG. Somebody has to take care of them! RAYMOND KOLWAITE, a stick of gum to BOB MIAZGA, because he will probably lose a lot more in the library. CONRAD KOWAL, one of Rita's pictures to seventh grader BOBBY CALLIHAN, since he is always asking her for one. HELENA KOWAL, her suit to her sister SYLVIA, so that it can again attend all the Alpha Beta banquets. BRUCE KRATZENBERG, his social studies and English books to JANET PELC. She might get some use out of them. ELAINE KROL, her ability to laugh to PAT SOLAN, because Mrs. Fulmer doesn't appreciate it. FREDERICK KULIK, his .22 rifle to GEORGE MEEHAN. It's his anyway. RITA KUPIEC, her sympathetic expressions to next year's secretarial practice class when they don't have their work done. ELIZABETH KUTAS, her seat in solid geometry class to any girl who is brave enough to take it.

JOAN LANGENEGGER, her locker to EV DEUDEK and SIS HOOL. They have a lot to carry home since they don't have room in their own lockers. JOHN LAZAREK, his seat in English class to SHIRLEY LAZAREK, because she will use it more than he did. WAYNE McDERMOTT, about five bucks to GENE FLETCHER. Wayne has owed it to him for a long time. MARIANNE McDONALD, the record "Slowpoke" to BARB WHEELER, because it ought to be her theme song. HAROLD McSWEENEY, a place at Scholl's Hotel to FRED BRAGG, so he can see the fights on television. RICHARD MADDEN, his seat in Miss Berryman's class to DON MILLER. He will probably have it anyway. ROBERT MAHAR, a mechanical drawing book to JIM KLUMBACH, because he can't afford one. FREDERICK MAIKRANZ, his detentions to BEVERLY CIMINO, because she likes them. JOHN MALLOY, nothing to nobody for no reason at all. RICHARD MALSAN, the anxieties of being a sports editor to MRS. FITZGERALD, because she did most of the worrying anyway. NANCY MANTOR, her title as ring leader of Homemaking III to JOAN POWELL, because she has a good start. JAMES MARKLEY, all his love for social functions to his younger brother BOB, so he can become a social lion as Jim was. JOHN MARTIN, all the good luck and good fortune he found to any senior coming to Whitesboro in their final year. PATRICIA MAXWELL, her seat in chemistry class to JEANNE STOFLE. Pat hopes Jeanne will do better than she did. STANLEY MIKULSKI, being Frank Swierat's shuffleboard partner to FRED KULIK, because he can afford it more than Stan can. DOROTHY MONROE, her seat in typing class to JOAN WILDHACK, because Dot still hasn't gotten past ten words per minute. THERESA MONTEROSE, her good times from W.C.S. to her younger brother, because she has not been here long enough to enjoy it. WHEELER MULLER, his seat in chemistry class to a tired Junior because it is a good place to sleep. WILLIAM MYERS, his football and baseball managership to TOM FARRELL, because he will make a good manager.

GERTRUDE NEUMANN, her gift of gab to JO BLAT, because she has a good start with her's. DONALD NIEMETZ, the football record of this year to next year's team. They will need it. CAROL O'CONNOR, all the rides to school she ever got to BARB ALTHOFF, because she hates the walk as much as Carol does. EUGENE ODERKIRK, a part in next year's senior play to any member of the class of '53, so he can have as much fun and satisfaction as Gene did. HERBERT OGDEN, all his gum wrappers to MISS BERRYMAN. She has all of Buster's gum anyway. FRANCES PACIOREK, her gym locker to anyone who wants it, because it hasn't worked all year. ELEANOR PARRY, her experiences as assistant to Miss Dey in the senior play to some Junior who likes to clear the stage of a lot of chairs every night, because it was really loads of fun. BARBARA PLOPPER, her retailing projects and seat in class to MAMIE KANE. She didn't do them this year and if she's in that class next year, she may be able to use them. GERALD RAGA, all his books to his sister, because she'll probably put them to use. FRANK REHM, his chemistry book to any Junior because he doesn't understand it. LORETTA ROBERT, her gum chewing to MISS BERRYMAN, because she takes it away from Lorretta anyway. LEROY ROBERTS, his wrestling togs to GUY BAILEY, because Roy thinks he will be champ next year. MARGARET ROBERTS, her homemaking success to her sister GRACIE, because Maggie loves it. VERN ROBERTS, his seat in study hall 28, 6th period to anybody who can find it. Vern can't. JACQUELINE ROBINSON, her locker to her brother BILL, because it's the first one Jackie has had all through high school that worked. MARY ROCCO, her mouse trap in locker 1105 to anyone who wants to catch her pet, Skip, because if he isn't caught you'll go hungry. GERALDINE ROMANOWSKI, her jitterbug dancing and stamping ability to ELAINE KULESZA, because she tries so hard to do well but can't.

JACQUELINE ST. JOHN, her position as Editor of "Wisp" to any Junior who isn't afraid to burn the "midnight oil". JOAN SAMBOR, all the gum she never had to JEAN MEEHAN, because she always supplied Joan with a pack each day. THERESA SANTA MARIA, left field to PAT DECK. She can catch flies better than Terry can. BARBARA SCHAFER, her gym locker to any freshman, because Barb could never remember the combination. JEAN SCHANTZ, her weekends in Lowville to anybody who can take them. Jean can't. RONALD SCHOEN, his seat in boys' cooking to JIM BRITT, because Mame doesn't know how to cook. EDWIN SCHOFER, one old clarinet to STANLEY ZURAKOWSKI, for old memories. BEATRICE SERVICE, her pea shooter to ANN SIRIANNIE, because she will need it next year. RALPH SERVICE, his booth at the Wyndott to the GRIECO SISTERS. They get there too late to get one of their own. MARY ANNE SHORTER, her corridor locker to her sister, JEANINE, because she uses it more than Mary Anne does. ANGELA SIRIANNIE, her gym locker to ANN SIRIANNIE, because she is always in it. CONSTANCE SIUTA, her place in A Capella choir to any senior coming into the choir who deserves it, because Connie is very fond of it. MARIE SLITZ, all of Squareville to MR. ROSEBUSH, because he'll live there someday anyway. SONYA SMOLINSKY, a ride home to her sister TANYA, so she'll get home on time once in a while. NANCY SOLHEIM, her social studies 9 seat to MARGARET RUSSELL, because she didn't take it when she was a freshman, either.

EILEEN SOMERS, her ability of not getting jokes to MARY GENTILE, because she's sort of slow catching on, too! INARA SPALVINS, keeping up the good reputation to the coming senior class of '53, because old and good customs are always preserved. ARTHUR STARK, his seat in agriculture class to GENE UEBLER, because he isn't learning anything in the back seat. MOLLY STAUFFER, all the good times she had in high school to ANITA CHENEY, because Molly feels she deserves them. JUDITH STEVENS, her seat in chemistry class to MARY SILCOX. She will need it some day. RICHARD STOFLE, his solid geometry book to anyone, because Dick could never understand it. NANCY STOOKS, her bookkeeping job in the bank to MR. THOMPSON. It's always above her head and so is Mr. T. FREDERICK SWARTZMAN, his Latin pitch books to MISS MERRITT, so that she may be sure that no one else has them. JOAN SWEETLAND, her band uniform to KEN SWEETLAND. It would fit better, even if smaller, than the one he now has. FRANK SWIERAT, a lot of luck and strength to PETER MANNA, because he'll need it on the football team. STEPHEN SYCHTYSZ, his seat on Fred Kulik's porch to anyone who wants it. Steve won't be around any more.

NORMA TANNEBRING, her good attendance to KAY REID. Then maybe she will come to school more often. SUZANNE TANURY, her place in chemistry class to MONICA GORECKI, because she appreciates good jokes. WILLIAM TAYLOR, a piece of bubble gum to BILL CHRISTENSEN. He's always chewing. KATHLEEN THOMAS, her book of addresses to PAT WHITAKER, because she would like to have it. NORMA TIFFANY, her business law class to anyone who wants it, for Norm really enjoyed it. JEROME TINE, his place in Scholl's Hotel to JIMMY SAVILLE, because he is always in there. MARGARET WALL, all her senior books to JOAN GUIDO, because she will get more out of them than Marge did. SARA WATTS, her place in Girls' Ensemble to the next alto in line, because Sally has been in three years and has had a lot of good times. DOLORES WAZENKEWITZ, her seat on Bus 19 to PAUL WRUBEL, because she never got to sit on it anyway. JAMES WEAVER, his office of Sergeant-of-Arms in N.B. to JIM BRITT, because Jim gave him a hard time at the meetings. ROBERT WHEELER, his money-collecting jobs to GEORGE HERTHUM, because he could never get it all and hopes George can do better. ANDREW WIND, his stool in Nofri's to GEORGE HERTHUM, because he'll be there all the time anyway. SANDRA-LOU WOOD, her seat in Creative Writing to MISS REINMANN, because she enjoyed helping Sandy with her homework. GWENDOLYN YOURDON, a motorcycle to ALICE KOLWAITE, to help her get down the hill to meet the bus in the morning. JOSEPHINE ZAMPARDI, Joe and Gil to NANCY MORAN and JOAN SCHREPPEL, because of their love of sports. WALTER ZARNOCH, his English books to DUANE ULRICH. He may make more sense out of them than Walt has.

THE TRIBE PLAY

The Senior Play, an annual affair given by the Senior Tribe of Whitesboro Central School, was presented this year by the Tribe of '52. Early last fall it was decided that the play to be presented by the Senior Tribe would be "Glamour Boy." Under the expert judging of Chief "Show 'Em How" Miss Dey, a very able cast was chosen.

Work began immediately to make this tribe play the best ever. Squaw "Help 'Em Out" Eleanor Parry provided expert aid to the members of the cast by being stage "clearer," prompter, and stand in for all the characters.

After many moons of hard practice and diligent work the Tribe Play, "Glamour Boy" became a reality. It was on the night of November 16, 1951, that the eyes of the public were opened to the dramatic talent of the following clansmen:

THE POW-WOW PLAYERS

Miss Davis.....Ann Farrell
Clarrissa Green.....Joanne Branche
Miss Higgins.....Mary Bellamy
Gregory (Flash) Horner.....Dudley Bailey
Chauncey Jay Mooney.....Eugene Oderkirk
Mr. Garfield.....John Barrett
Georgia Belle Roberts.....Carol O'Connor

MAY ceremonial JUNIOR PROM

The May Ceremonial King Conrad Kowal and Queen Rita Kupiec being crowned by James Weaver and Sonya Smolinsky the chairmen of the affair.

Just like other tribes have done at Whitesboro Central, we had the traditional Junior Prom. For many moons we had thought about this one celebration. Then, about the beginning of March, we thought we'd better do something about it since the night for the dance was just two moons away on May 25, 1951. Miss Jackson, our art teacher, directed our progress and corrected our mistakes. She deserves much credit for her work on our dance.

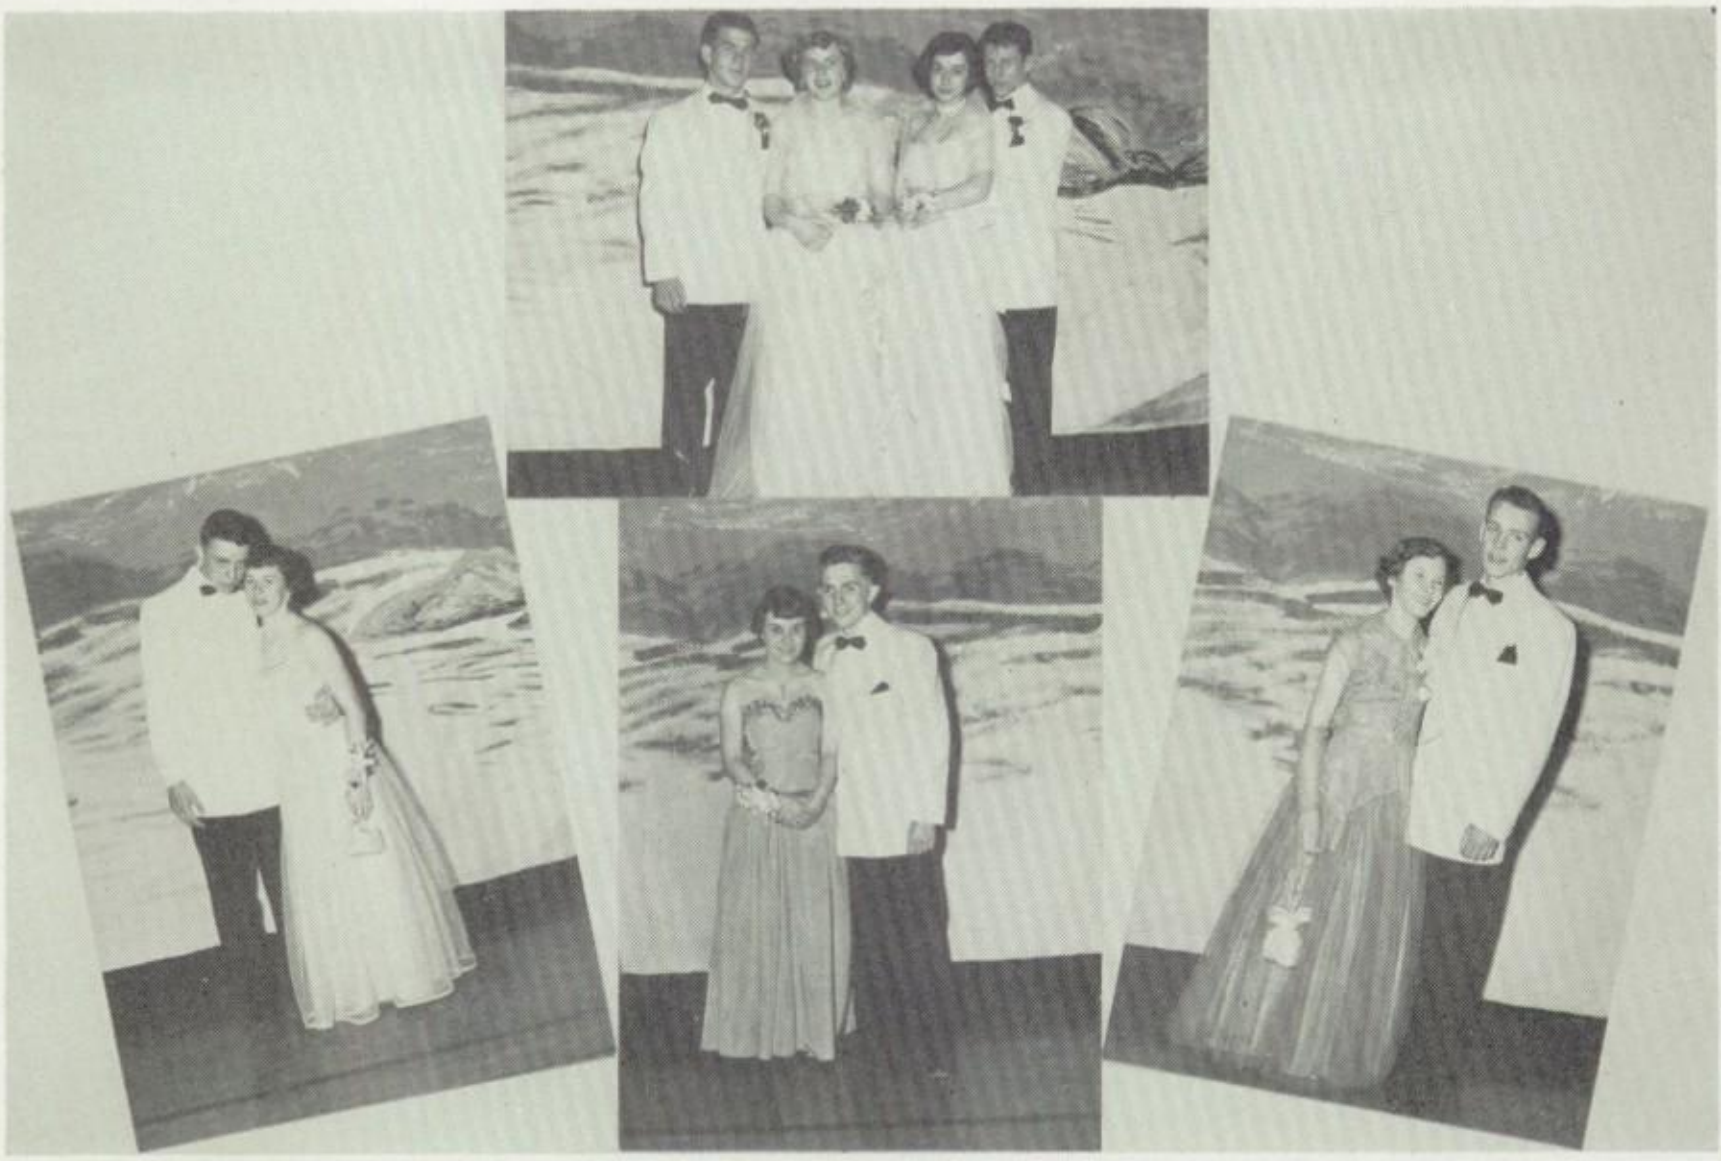
As our first step, we chose young brave Jim Weaver and young maiden Sonya Smolinsky as the two chiefs of our dance. Then we began thinking of an idea for the dance and after choosing "Hawiian Magic" as our idea, brave Jack Bathrick was put in charge of paint c(l)an. Many scouts and maidens were chosen to help him. Others were named chiefs of committees to take care of other things that made our dance big success. A friend of our tribe, Lawrence Luizzi, said his music-makers would play for us that night.

At one "paint party," maid Ann Farrell decided to show how loyal she was to tribe. She made her face up to be remembered as having taken on "a hue of tarnished gold with touches of chartreuse around her mouth and streaks of warm tan around her eyes."* Scout Conrad Kowal had ideas all his own. At one of the "paint parties"* he became "builder of much."* He decided on heap-big pink hotel for people to rest after many hours of relaxation in sun. Squaw Ann Howard also had speciality — beach umbrellas, but not plain ones. Oh, no! Hers were red and yellow striped affairs, the colors of course, stemming from her tribal faith.

When big night came, many young Hiawathas and their maidens attended. The dance started just as the night sun came out. Couples danced for a while and soon big moment came — the march and crowning of the prettiest maiden and her handsome brave. Chiefs of dance, Jim and Sonya, crowned maid Rita Kupiec and brave Conrad Kowal as rulers over our dance.

Although the dance is over, the memories of that night will be locked up forever in the hearts of those who attended. Our May Ceremonial has been and will remain an all-important chapter in the tale of the Tribe of '52.

*"Wisp," May 1951.



Enjoying Hawaii in all its splendor and happiness

The newly crowned king and queen of the May Ceremonial, Conrad Kowal and Rita Kupiec, reign happily over the beautiful land of Hawaii

SPECIAL HONORS AND AWARDS

In years 1951 and 1952 many honors were given to outstanding members of the Tribe of '52. Ann Howard received the Elmira College Award as outstanding Junior girl and Dick Malsan, the Harvard College Award as outstanding Junior boy. Three members of the Senior Tribe were chosen to attend the Herald-Tribune Forum in New York City. They were Ann Farrell, Conrad Kowal and Jim Weaver. Dick Malsan was chosen to attend the Empire Boys' State Annual Encampment at Colgate University.

Molly Stauffer, Ann Howard, Richard Malsan and Conrad Kowal were chosen by their fellow classmates as outstanding citizens of their class. These four represented W. C. S. at the Citizenship Education Convention held at Syracuse University. Molly also represented W. C. S. in the annual D. A. R. competition.

Each year the Rotarians of Utica organize a Junior Rotarian Club. This year John Bathrick, Ronald Hovey, Conrad Kowal, Richard Malsan and James Weaver were chosen to represent our school.

THE WARRIORS...

After many summer moons, our tribe returned to its tepee. Big Chief Frye beat on his tom-tom and called all his warriors into a war council to train them for the big fall football raiding parties. These sturdy braves spent a long moon in hard practice. Then they were ready to embark on their first attack upon their rival tribe from Rome. In a night raid on September 21, the Blue and White warriors were a highly inspired and pepped-up group of attackers and after a hard battle, our braves captured a firm and decisive victory. It was a fitting triumph to get the scalps of the foes who had defeated us in the battle of 1950.

This first victory filled our warriors with confidence and ambition to win new battles. They got their chance to do this when the Golden Bomber tribe from Ilion invaded the home grounds on the afternoon of September 29. Taken by surprise at first, our warriors fought on even terms for the first half of the battle. However, in the second half our able braves returned to move on and thoroughly conquer their opponent.

On the three following Saturday afternoons, three more victories were chalked up by the raiders of Che-ga-quat-ka. The neighboring tribe from Proctor was defeated on our home grounds, while our braves completely trampled the tribes of U.F.A. and New Hartford in raids on the opponents' home grounds.

Next came a severe test for our braves. Our messengers brought word that the tribe from Cortland was planning an attack on Saturday afternoon, October 27. This was the same tribe that had won a close decision from us the year before. Our braves readied themselves for the attack and, when it came, they arose to the occasion to overwhelmingly massacre the foe. This was indeed a sweet revenge.

The last raid of the season was planned for November 3 on the tribe from Herkimer. However, heavy snows fell and the attack was called off.

The outstanding successes of our warriors in their battles demonstrated the fine training, conditioning, and discipline administered by Chief Head, Chief Leach, and Big Chief Frye. The warriors themselves also showed their ability. After each raid there was no doubt as to the superior tribe. It was always the game warriors of Che-ga-quat-ka.

Within the tribe, the team play was excellent. Our big braves on the front line consistently opened holes in the defense to enable the backfield warriors to cross the goal. The attack flourished both in the air and on the ground. When our tribe was on the defensive, the braves continually stopped the opponents' onslaughts and in only one battle were the opposing tribesmen able to cross our goal.

The 1951 football season again proves the superiority of our tribe in the field of sports as well as sportsmanship.

GIRLS' ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

The purpose of the Girls' Athletic Association is to promote and further girls interests in athletics. It encourages and aids its members in becoming active participants as well as intelligent spectators. It provides awards in the form of letters for deserving members. Through its monthly meetings, the G. A. A. introduces its membership to prominent sports figures in the area and acquaints them with many recreational and sports activities which might be carried on after they graduate. One example of this is the Tramp and Trail Club. Recently, Marjorie Gardner, who holds several skeet shooting awards, has been guest speaker at one of the meetings. The organization sponsors play days, assemblies and recreational activities for parents and alumni. The officers of the G. A. A. for this year have been:
